

Artist's Statement – Nicole Spencer

I've always viewed my environment in a different perspective than most. The world is a colorful place full of adventure and excitement, something that I feel at times to be the only person to know. So, I use my art to share to the world what I see, in the hopes they will enjoy it too. Each small critter has a big story to tell, and I'm the one to tell that story. Whether that's through the paint on a brush or the ink on a pen.